Horizons

Come take my hand, and I'll take you to new horizons.
We've had a similar past; we can lead each other far.
There are many paths to follow, and many roads to find,
And many new horizons to discover, being neither sun nor star.

We've come a long way together, through many a new horizon.
For some, our horizons will never again agree.

Though apart we may grow, following our own horizons,
Together in mind we'll always be.

Bill Fantry

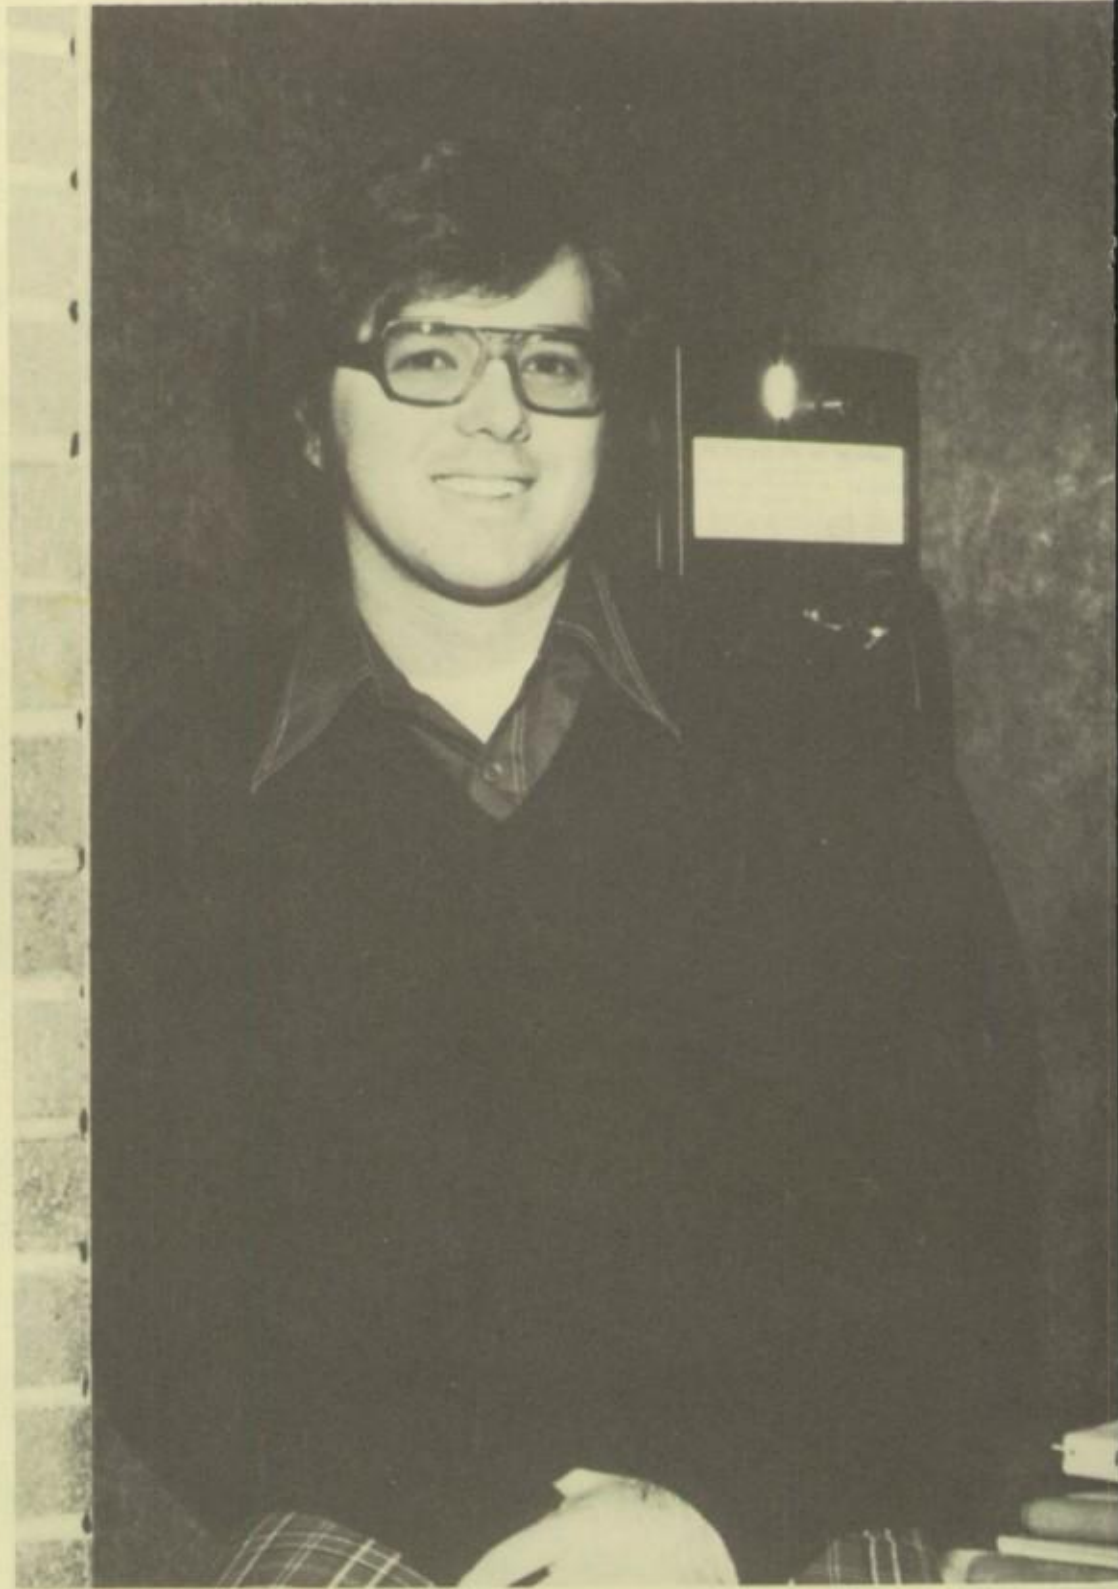

Davie, Davie,
Who could ever forget Godspell? I know I never will.
Don't ever wander too far from the stage, 'cuz you'll miss it dearly. Take care always, I'll be thinking 'boutcha, always,

Bill
Fantry

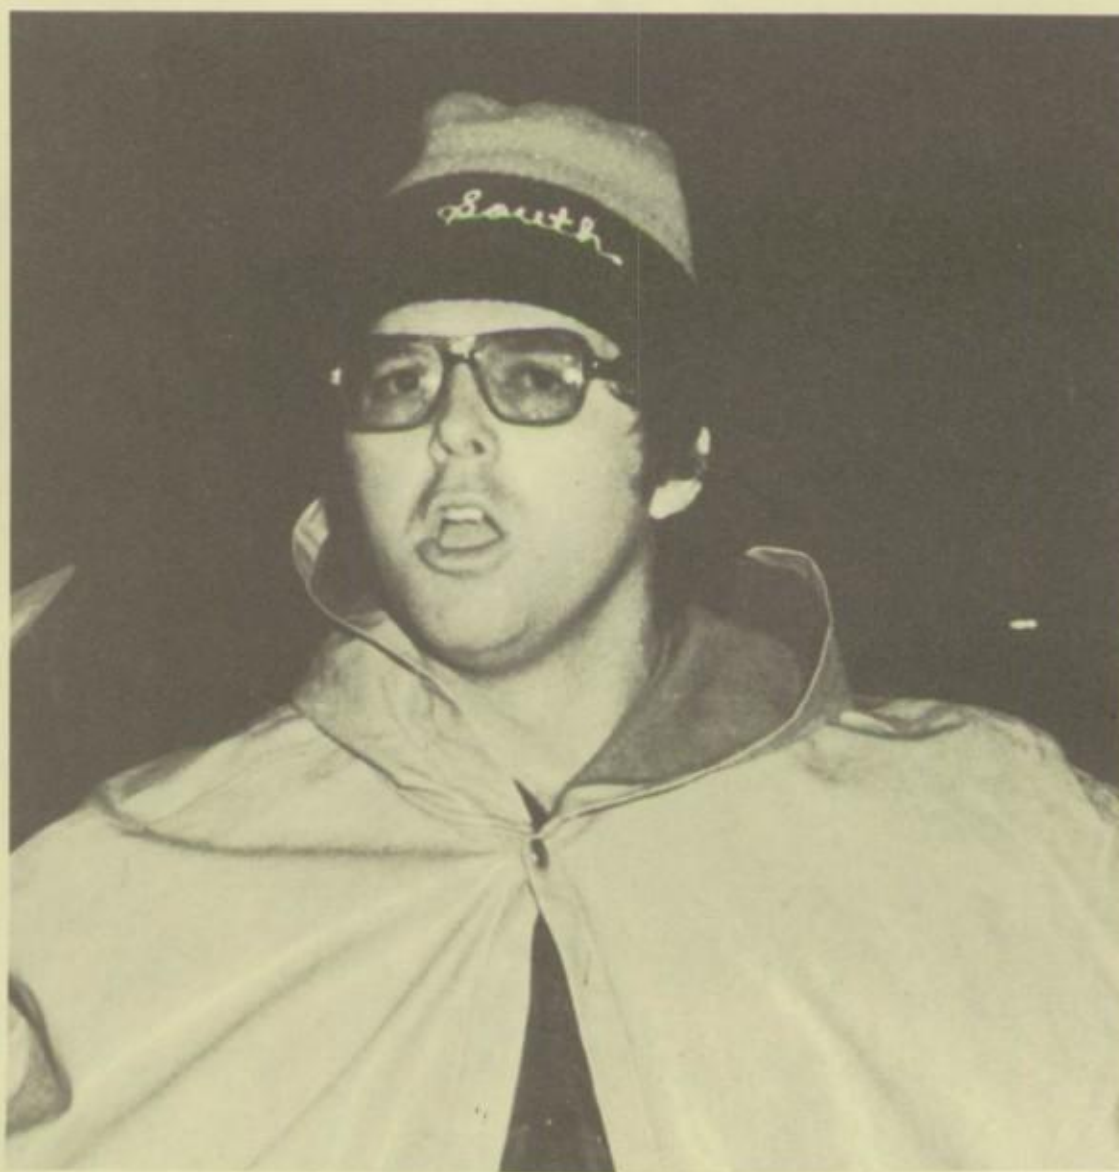

THE CLASS OF '78 DEDICATES HORIZONS TO MR. BRALICK

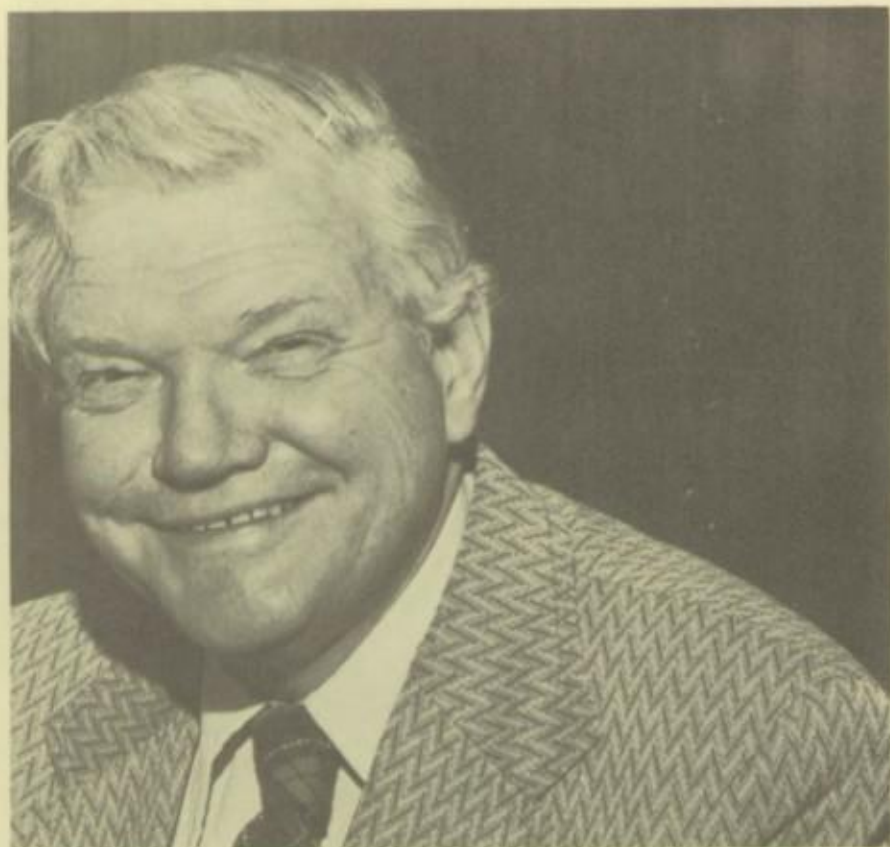

We first met Mr. Mike Bralick in the fall of our Junior year. We, like Mr. Bralick, were young and eager to learn and experience new things. In a very short time we grew into knowing him, and he in turn understood us. If any of us needed advice or a good laugh Mr. Bralick was always willing. He always had a way to get you to smile and face reality to your best advantage.

In the two years Mr. Bralick has spent with us we have learned that teachers are real people, who are behind us in our endeavors, not against. We, the Class of 1978, have grown very attached to Mr. Bralick, knowing that both of us have many new experiences ahead of us and new horizons yet to see. In order to show our appreciation, these "Horizons", are yours Mr. Bralick.

Here we stand
With one foot out the door,
The other still in the Childhood
I'd left not long before.
With decisions to make
And directions to choose -
And yet my dreams run free
I've got nothing to lose

Here we stand -
Silhouettes against the sky Tomorrow waiting in the shadows
As today passes us by
With minds that hope
And eyes that see
We are strong,
There is nothing we can't be

And we stand here
Warmed by the light of the sun
And the horizons hold a dream
For everyone

What can I say to such a good friend and super person? You know I really did learn alot about people this year (especially how to creep freshman.) You're just so talented in so many areas that I wouldn't know where to start compliments. I know that I kidded around a lot with you and I really apologize for anything you took seriously. I am really going to miss write!! Well anyway. I'll still be around for one more year (senior) so I'll be around for definitely have to have some good times.
Even better than Hello Dolls. More good times.
You ever wish "Hello Dolls" was just a

ORGANIZATIONS

Dave,
To a real nice guy that I met just this year and
I'm glad I did.
You have a good sense of humor. Hope you stay that way.
Good luck in the rest of your years in high school, they were fun for me. I hope they will be for Art I'm going to miss you in class.

Take Care
Good luck in the future!
Hope to see you around maybe I'll come to visit you in school.

Bye Bye
Mary Walter 78"
Wally
P.S. Be good and Stay out of trouble.

Dave, (a fellow monkey lover)
Thanks for all the happiness you've given me. We shared many experiences this year that I can't begin to write them all down unless you would like to have a whole mother yearbook. So I'll just cut it & to make it short & sweet:
I love ya! a friend forever.
P.S. Good luck,
always!

NHS

NHS is an organization dedicated to service, leadership, scholarship, and character. On November 21, 1977 seventeen new members were initiated into this organization. Part of this initiation was to dress up as a famous movie character. The characters were chosen for the initiates by the members. On the evening of the 21st, at a candle light ceremony, the seventeen initiates became members of the National Honor Society.

In an effort to foster its main goal of international friendship, peace, and understanding, the AFS Club is continuing its cultural exchanges of hosting foreign students and sending Americans abroad. This year's AFS student Leschelle Childs is from Australia and is spending the school year with Alice and Russ Muehlbauer and their family. As last year's American Abroad, Bill Fantry spent the summer in Turkey. At this time our two American Abroad candidates, Jeff Steger and Rita Kehoe, are awaiting word of their placement for summer or fall of 1978.

Last year a new dimension, the Domestic Exchange, was added and Anna Fantry spent the spring semester in California. Several students have applied for a Domestic Exchange for the fall semester 1978. This is a one semester exchange between schools within the U.S.A. so that students may experience different life styles and customs in our own country.

The club also arranges one or two short-term exchanges each year which provide an opportunity for a group of East Troy students to spend a week or two in another community and then to act as hosts to students from that community.

As far back as I can remember, coming to America was my biggest dream. That dream unfolded before me at the beginning of 1977, and from that moment on my dream has been fulfilled.

Everyone I have associated with has made this year the best of my life and I wish to thank everyone for being so kind and friendly.

I will always remember and treasure this experience and I encourage you all to learn more about the AFS as it is a wonderful and learning experience for all.

Yours truly,

Leschelle Childs

AFS has done alot for me, and I wouldn't have traded my experience for anything in the world.

I saw and learned so many things that I never even could have dreamed existed in those few months over the summer, that I probably couldn't have guessed what my trip would have been like had I stayed home.

I wish to thank most deeply all the people that had anything to do with sending me to Turkey, and I'd also like to urge anyone that has thought about any type of travel, be it in the United States, or abroad, to at least look into AFS.

Bill Fantry

My domestic exchange trip to Woodland, California last year was fantastic. Five months of sunshine, new surroundings, and new friends!

The memories of sore eyes from crying as I left it all behind, feeling lost at Chicago's train station, four fun friends made on the train, and my new family coming to meet me 15 minutes late are etched in my mind. All in all, it gave me a new 1977 of hopes, fears, and dreams never to be forgotten.

All my thanks to those who chose me to go.

When I ran for the position of the President of the Student Council, I didn't realize how difficult the job really was. Not only are there responsibilities to the Student Council, but also to the student body as a whole.

I wish to thank the many students who helped me in my tasks. Also, I hope that the communication gap between the student body, especially the younger students, and the Student Council will be bridged in future years. Good luck to next year's council in all its endeavors.

Dave -
 wow, What a year this has been!
 Thanks for all of your help and support. It's been so much fun watching all of the things the freshmen have done.
 You should be very proud of their abilities
 as an actor - and for a hobby either!

The 1977-78 Torch staff headed by Editors Paul Greenwald and Rita Kehoe and advisor Ms. Clausen covered ETHS news and sports. About 60 students in Journalism I and II classed learned techniques of news-writing and applied the knowledge to producing a weekly edition of The Torch printed in The East Troy News.

The Torch staff learned about newspaper production through visits to the Southern Lakes Publishing Co. in Delavan and The Milwaukee Journal Co.

We are grateful to Floyd Zimmerman, editor and published of The East Troy News, and his staff for publishing The Torch. In this way, we have shared both our knowledge of newswriting and ETHS news with the East Troy community.

FBLA

Future Business Leaders of America is a professional youth organization for high school students enrolled in Business and office education classes. This year is FBLA's silver anniversary and local activities have been planned around the theme, "Silver Standards With Golden Ideals."

ROW 1, L. to R.: K. Sterle, D. Mac Arthur, S. Beaver, L. Barr, L. Sexton, Advisor Mrs. J. McFarlane, ROW 2: M. Barnes, J. Tysver, C. Normandeau, K. Mitchell, G. Savina, D. Ruetten, D. Trampe, K. Davis, K. Norton. ROW 3: M. Cook, K. Bindrim, H. Price, M. Tucker, C. Rose, J. Rudolph, D. Hodgson, D. Nicholl, J. Rodman. ROW 4: D. Dancker, C. Cleveland, V. Senft, C. Larsen, D. Dancker, K. Ladish, B. Saffran, K. Faude, L. Sexton, J. Jensen. ROW 5: C. Ladwig, L. Moyer, M. Lucas, D. Jackson, D. Kamenick.

The goals of FBLA include developing business leadership, strengthening the confidence of students in themselves and in their work, creating interest in and understanding of business enterprise, developing character, dependability and initiative, assisting in establishing career goals and facilitating in the transition from school to work.

An advisory board works with Mrs. McFarlane, advisor. This years board included Mr. Lorn Matelski, Mrs. Bernice McGuire, Mr. John Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Art Biesenthal, and Mr. Tim Robinson.

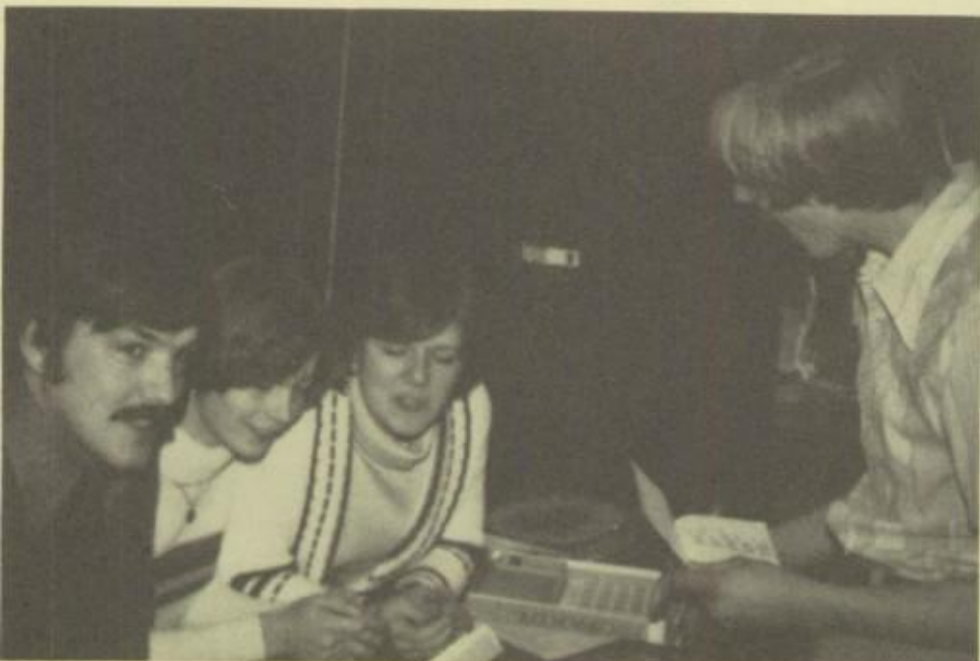

ACTIVITIES

Professional - Competitive events, field trips, business-related panel discussions, guest speakers, and career day.

Service - "Heart fun" activities, helping those in need within the community.

Civic Activities - By working with local business leaders, planned activities contribute to the improvement of the school, home, or community.

Fund Raising projects help to finance chapter activities and to send members to state, regional, and national conferences.

With the outstanding efforts of all the team members, especially Lori and Lynn Jacobs, the East Troy girls golf team placed higher in the conference meet than they have for the past five years. This is especially gratifying since one of our best golfers, Pam Schmidt was out for the season due to illness, and the remaining team members had to improve their scores to compensate for her absence.

B. Pennington

The girl's team finished in seventh place this year. The team record does not reflect the amount of work the girls put in this season. During practice they worked hard trying to improve their skills. I feel there are three team members who should receive special recognition this year. Debbie Tracy and Jean Byrnes played 1st doubles and had a 7-1 record before the conference meet. At the conference meet they took third place. Jane Gerstmann had a 2nd singles record of 5-2 this season before the conference meet. Jane placed fourth at the conference meet.

Our Varsity strength was built on our 5 returning letter winners. We also had experienced players moving up from JV. Our goal for the year was to improve our skills and improve over last years season of 5 games won. We did improve both our skill and our winning, with 8 games. We lost 5 other games by 2 or 3 points. Roxanne Adams was voted MVP and also received honorable mention in league play.

Mrs. Jan Wenzel

*Dave,
you made a wild class a little bit tamer. I really enjoyed having you.
you made my day a little more
Good Luck in the future,
Jan Wenzel*

TROJANS HAVE OUTSTANDING SEASON

The major reason for our successful season was the ballplayers.

They were willing to take the time, put forth the effort and make sacrifices necessary to be a winner. The players had pride in their individual performances and dedication to the team. Our Blackshirts led the conference in just about every defensive category and ended the season with the second best record in the history of the school. It was truly a team effort. I love each and everyone of you guys.

The Sophomore Football Team had an exciting season changing an un-victorious Freshman season into the school's first undefeated Sophomore season. Personal and team goals set prior to the first game, were met and surpassed. Many players improved far beyond the coaches' expectations. Early season victories developed the team's confidence that they could win, and this confidence allowed them to defeat previously unbeaten Mukwonago and Whitewater late in the season.

CLASS WILL

I, Roxanne Adams, leave D.M. and L. C. the chance to be understood by ignorant people.
I, Tom Anderson, leave knowing that Glenn Maske will never be another Elvis, and with that last remark I Tom Anderson leave for good.
I Eileen Atkinson, leave Tim Kilpin with the memory of Highway F and the Sopworth Camel.
I, Dave Austin, leave this school just as crowded as when I came to it, and all the great times.
I, John Baack, leave knowing that we improved the football season.
I, Julie Barnes, leave knowing that I was the first of six to make it, and to S.H. I leave my corner — put it to good use.
I, Mary Barnes, leave reminding Merton Bower that my first name is Mary not Barb.
I, Lynn Barr, leave knowing that after 4 years I still do not know the street march.
I Shari Beaver, leave Nanfy and Heitz my volleyball abilities so they can take care of all the Weasles.
I, Lowell Berg, leave my ingenious ability to write up chemistry labs without doing the experiments to Beth Clark.
I, Dixie Binder, leave hoping this school won't have any more quiet people like me.
I, Joe Bohn, leave knowing that someone will always pick on my cars.
I, Mert Bower, leave hoping that the ghost of Dan Riegleman is still around to haunt future student council presidents.
I, Dave Brehm, leave E.T.H.S. giving any and all of my superior football skills to anyone that wants to use them; hoping that whoever does, waits until I'm out of the country first.
I, Laura Brown, leave the problem of acquiring x-mas trees up to my sister, Harry, and all my great dramatic talents to my cousin, Rich, in hopes that he'll put them to good use.
I, Don Buchholtz, leave knowing that Mr. Bralick and Randy Jones have not developed enough skills to beat Ottow and me.
I, Pat Byrnes, leave knowing how to spell relief.
I, Julie Carlile, leave on the left side ...
I, Amy Carter, leave ready for life in the fast lane, but still wondering how they always knew!
I, Nancy Cash, leave knowing that everyone else coming in will learn as much as I did (which isn't too much).
I, Dan Chart, leave knowing that the school, won't be the same without me.
I, Jay Clark, leave my office fine to anyone that wants to pay it, and the start of a winning tradition to future East Troy football players.
I Sue Clark, leave taking Tom with me.
I, Jane Cliffgard, leave nothing behind.
I, Mel Cook, leave Harry and Mr. Ladish my oil painting to cherish it in their own way. And leave knowing that Mr. Ladish will have my brother next year in his Art class. And hope he gives him as hard of a time as I did. One more thing is I like the way Mr. Ladish cuts a deck of cards.

I Dale Czarnecki, leave knowing that LA will get along without me.
I, Karen Davis, leave Mrs. Jansen an empty refrigerator and a broken scale, and also a half empty bag of raisins to Mary ...
I, Esther Dearing, leave to my two sisters my 4th hour library pass (everyday).
I, Steph Dearing, leave Mr. Bralick one very, very wet sponge!
I, Tom Dominski, leave knowing that thinking is harder work than I thought it was.
I, Paula K. Dopke, leave my drawer in the art room and all the crummy sketches in it to some other sucker in the hopes of bigger and better silkscreens.
I, Theresa Dornfeld, leave all my soda cans and dorito bags in study hall for Miss Clausen to pick up.
I, John Duwe, leave knowing that Mr. Bralick will never be able to cope with the pressure of trying to win at a game called bad minton!
I, Ken Esch, leave whatever the school has to offer, which isn't a heck of a lot.
I, Anna Fantry, leave these hallowed halls of learning for the more fascinating world put in front of me.
I, Karen Faude, leave knowing that some teachers still can't pronounce my last name right! A simple last name of course!
I, Jim Friedrichs, leave my unwanted feelings, that so many gave to me when I arrived.
I, Tom Friemoth, leave all my chewed up gum that's stuck to the bottom of my desks for the freshmen.
I, Paul Greenwald, leave knowing that Carey Mattioli might never have passed Typing II without me, and knowing that Mr. Thome will never have a more efficient, hardworking manager.
I, Cheryl Gest, leave knowing that I am the first of my family to graduate.
I, Vicki Hackbarth, leave taking my mouth with me knowing that it has fulfilled its duty at ETHS and lives to carry on.
I, Jim Healy, leave happy just that I made it through it.
I, Jodie Healey, leave my great clarinet abilities to Evelyn Etten.
I, Larry Hjelmberg, leave this school in hopes that I shall never have to return but can return if I please.
I, Lenn Hotz, leave my musical aspiration to any person(s) who may someday form a "TEMPEST". Three shots for the band!
I, Joanne Hunter, leave having found B. F. III nice to pinch.
I, Gary Irek, leave hoping life will be a little easier and knowing the process of learning has no end, also the kind thoughts to Mr. Matelski 3 down; 4 to go!
I, Lisa Jonas, leave taking Larry Hjelmberg with me for good, with no return.

I, Randy Jones, leave Mr. Bralick my ability to play badminton in the hopes that someday he will be rated No. 1. I also leave to Snatch, Twutski, and my little brother, my ability to laze off during basketball practice knowing full well they'll do it to the Max.

I, Keith Kadow, leave nothing because no-one gave me anything.

I, Joe Katcha, leave hoping to become a spanish spy for the CIA, in cognito, with a gun and fake nose, and a spy decoder ring, to search out the forces of evil, and explore strange new worlds.

I, Rick Katzman, leave my ability to start fires in small engines, and my brains to the under classmen.

I, Joanne Kaufman, leave hoping Mr. Sternberg will have his absentee cards ready for the next person who's luck enough to get the job.

I, Tim Kilpin, leave my fingers, knowing they'll be well-remembered by the faculty and administration.

I, Tim Kilps, leave a school bus stop sign to Dave Schmitt, a bus piston to Joe Katcha, two signs to Tom Dominski, and a can of spray paint to Tim Kilpin.

I, Cathy Kittelson, leave knowing that there is only one Kittelson left to keep up the name. Good luck Mike and do a good job.

I, Cindy Ladwig, leave Mr. Te the rest of the fantastic Baritone section.

I, Amy Leibner, leave Mr. Cotter the comforting thought that I am truly the "last of the Leibners."

I, Scott Linskens, leave knowing that I won't be one of the 600 people coming back to this school.

I, Mary Lucas, leave E.T.H.S. forever.

I, Dawn Ludwig, leave with the special privilage of parking my unit in the teacher's parking lot without getting caught.

I, Laurie Manley, leave my antique gym suit to anyone who wants to get laughed out of class.

I, Mick McGuire, leave Mr. Hosni all my mechanical abilities.

I, Sue Menting, leave knowing all blondes aren't dumb, thanks Mr. Cox.

I, Dale Moore, leave one deserted locker to anyone unfortunate enough to still be in school.

I, Lesa Moyer, leave my ability to smile to anyone who needs it; and leave knowing Mr. Cox is still waiting for Friday

I, Sheri Naber, leave happy that I made it through.

I, Darrell Ottow, leave all my smelly basketball equipment to Coach Schmidt.

I, Doug Ottow, leave my knowledge of being crazy to Mr. Cox.

I, Victor Peacock, leave a plastic knife to Mr. Sternberg so he can walk high and not limp.

I, Marikay Pellman, leave my honor pass to Linda Reiherzer and Joanne Hunter.

I, Doug Pollard, leave my car and my parking space to my girl friend who will be driving it next year.

I, Karen Ramstack, leave knowing that a journey of a thousand miles began with a single step.

I, Doug Reed, leave knowing that it took a lot longer time to get out of here than I expected.

I, Linda Reiherzer, leave knowing that the P.E.O-

.P.L.E. program will never be the same without Joanne H., Amy L., Me, and the guys from D.W.S.

I, Cindy Rhode, leave knowing that I will never have to return — Hopefully.

I, Doug Rodefer, leave my brain to my little sister who needs all she can get.

I, Jeff Rodman, leave the East Troy High School with a good record of conduct and a serious mannerism in which I guided myself.

I, Lupe Rodriguez, "leave this day" Yesterday was good and tomorrow is yet to be known. I like today because I find that there is no tomorrow, so I leave only this day.

I, Lori Rudolph, leave knowing I will never pass this way again.

I, Brenda Saffran, leave this school in remembrance of all the good and bad times that I have had in it, and wishing goood luck to all the freshmen coming in.

I, Annette Schilleman, leave my sense of humor to anyone who wants it.

I, Lynn Schrader, leave all the teachers with gray hair & a lot less hassle, and never to return.

I, Tammy Schultz, leave knowing I won't have to come back.

I, LuAnn Sexton, leave this school hoping never to return.

I, Mark Schmidt, leave a set of keys for a 1973 Vega in locker number 326, combination 3-37-29 for any sucker like I was.

I, Roger Schmidt, leave with pleasure.

I, Dave Schmitt, leave finally and forever.

I, Paul Steger, leave hoping Miss Kuharske can find a name for her puppet and Mr. Cox can find another outhouse to burn.

I, Kathy Sterle, leave to Mr. Ladish the magical words, "What if?" . . . hoping that in time, he will think of an answer.

I, Gerie Thelen, leave the publicity work for drama club to anyone crazy enough to take it.

I, Debbie Tracy, leave Karen Pellman hoping that she will take over my job in teasing Spider Lady. I also leave Jock and Wino knowing that they can manage anything after our tennis season etc.

I, Diane Trampe, leave one left-over chiquita trojan to Mr. Belcher as a good luck charm.

I, Mary Tucker, leave to Mr. Telindert all my broken reeds and the hassles of being chosen for solos to Jane Gertsman.

I, Tina Vey, leave my cherished first chair to Rita.

I Mitch Visintainer, leave Mr. Bralick one less ankle to tape, Coach Schmidt one less talented player and not knowing what that L. stands for, and I leave a boring band cause I'm gone.

I, Mary Walter, leave the big ETHS with nothing behind, I hope. I hope never to return except for sport activities.

I, Darcy Williams, leave knowing I had lots of fun.

I, Steph Whiting, leave my smiles and laughs to ring in the halls of ETHS.

I, Steve Zelenski, leave all the polish jokes flying around in the halls to any other pollock in ETHS

Dearest Dave,

Since his was a 'yearbook' I will start writing about events from the beginning of this last year! Willing - I first of all, wasn't exhausted to the it was so much fun, and we could have done it without you! The sets you & the rest of the crew made were fantastic. Congrats! The basketball games (were fun - but you didn't have to go to many - (away games) especially - hint, go next year! - or else - how about Mr. Sternberg's semester - a thriller - two days of it: what a thing to remember. Our Christmas Chorus Concert - 'Magnificent' - love singing & it wouldn't be the same ^{SPK} Let's see, I won't forget sitting at the lunch table with you 1st Semester! Mr. Sternberg's Paper - Spring Chorus Concert & finally 2nd Composition. The things we had to go thru - just as freshmen! Dave, thanks for being there when I needed you & being just you. Yours a sweet (your) guy we can be in the chair - around the year. You'd better be friends in my classes next year. Friends -

Dave, I'm looking at you to be in the chair - around the year. You'd better be friends in my classes next year. Friends -

Well Dave...
What can I say to such a great friend
like you? Hey, Stay
my friend and I
give you all my love,

Shelly
Ok Dave - here's a long P.S.

Thanks for a terrific year!

You really are a good person to put up with me and all my moods and complaints!
You're sweet! If I'm president for next year - you better help me - you've got a lot of ideas and you're an excellent artist!
I hope your art is appreciated all your years of High School -

Dave,
Another year gone by
and we remain we are friends. I hope we
and we continue to have great memories to have had in the past.
as always

FORENSICS

The East Troy High School Forensics team completed its most successful season during the 1977-1978 school year. After attending 4 practice tournaments in which many blue ribbons were earned by team members and in which Cindy Larsen, Denise MacArthur, and the "Long Rain" Interpereters Theater group won power round trophies, the team went on to place third at the conference tournament. State competition was reached by 14 entries and 9 of those returned with gold medals. This spring was the beginning of a new event --- the "Forensic and Song" program presented by the team for the entertainment of the public.

Schwartz, J. Sturm-coach. Row 4: D. MacArthur, S. Visintainer, D. Danker, C. Knox, Row 5: F. VonRueden, L. Berg, C. Scherkenbach, T. Pfister, T. Kilpin, J. Hendrick. Not Pictured: B. Fantry, L. Kubicki, K. Parent, G. Thelen, R. Thomas

This spring, the drama club took a series of children's plays on tour to area grade schools and a local nursing home. The plays were "Hansel & Gretel", "Go Jump In The Lake", and "The Lion Who Wouldn't".

The East Troy Varsity Baseball season started optimistically and ended successfully. The Trojans had a 9-9 record, but that doesn't say much about the season.

After the Trojans finished in a tie with Mukwonago for fourth place in the conference, the WIAA tournament started.

East Troy began with a 14-4 win over the Clinton Bulldogs. Then the Trojans set off to win the Regional Championship with a 5-3 win over the Big Foot Chiefs. The next step was Sectionals in Columbus. East Troy won 4-1 against Edgerton. With "State" near, fan support grew. The Trojans then faced the hometown Columbus team and lost in a 5-1 game. However, the team still had a very successful year and should be commended for their efforts.

Coach's comment- Our season this year, although we never won a match, was in my opinion a complete success. We started the season with 18 boys and only one dropped. We had 4 letter winners: Sr. Dave Autin and Jr's. Todd Pfister, Steve Vey and Mick Mitten. Todd Pfister was chosen as the most valuable and Mick Mitten the Captain. If all of the boys again go out for golf, we should have a better season next year. Let's have more freshmen next year.

had a good year, ha?

It was ok. - I do believe never had our dance marathon, though! Will maybe get one next year.

Oh that reminds me - I absolutely love your dancing.

Maybe sometime (well, not sometime) we will be dancing partners. Bay - waves that to Great!

Will - better say goodbye!

Have a great summer & call me up sometime
Love, Sue
